ORAL JUDGEMENT

This petition came up for admission on 18th October, 1988. Justice A.P. Ravani (as he then was), by a speaking order, admitted the matter and issued Rule. The learned Single Judge stated in the said order that two similar petitions had already been rejected by him but since he was told that some matters raising similar questions were pending, he had issued Rule in order to avoid multiplicity of proceedings. However, interim relief was not granted. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner is no longer in possession of the premises and it is also stated at the bar that the matters which were pending have already been disposed of and the issues raised in this petition have been decided against the petitioner. In view of this, the petitioner would not be entitled to any relief in this petition. The petition is, therefore, dismissed. Rule discharged with no order as to costs.
